

Welcome

Judith Lydon and Cathy Walmsley

Access All Areas

The health passport: a person centered communication guide

What is a health passport ?

A document which provides essential information to health professionals about the patient

Warrington

Community Services Unit

Your health is our business

Warrington and Halton Hospitals

NHS Foundation Trust

Benefits of the health passport

- Promotes person centred care
- Increases communication between health professionals and patients
- Reduces the risk of inequality in care for vulnerable adults
- Increased partnership working between community and hospital

Warrington

Community Services Unit

Your health is our business

Warrington and Halton Hospitals
NHS Foundation Trust