- a. to access their data and to receive its copy;
- b. to rectify their data;
- c. to have their personal data removed;
- d. to have the processing of their data limited;
- e. to transfer their data;
- f. to object to the processing of their data

Each time, to confirm if and in what scope the aforementioned rights are granted to the Participant, and within the scope of their application, the Participant may contact the Controller by sending correspondence to the address provided in paragraph 3 above.

11. The Participant has the right to complain to the supervisory authority, which is the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection – address: ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warszawa.

12. The personal data will NOT be processed for the purpose of automated decision making, including profiling.

X. Final provisions

1. In case the Conference or Associated Event is cancelled due to the fault of the Local Conference Organiser of the Conference, the entire registration fee will be refunded on behalf of the Participant or Sending Entity, respectively. As for Consumers, general legal provisions effective in Poland apply.

2. The Local Conference Organiser reserves the right to change, for important reasons, the programme of the Conference or Associated Events after 15 May 2019 and to change the location of Associated Events.

3. To the extent allowed under Polish law, the Local Conference Organiser of the Conference excludes their responsibility for damage incurred by the Participants and Sending Entity related to the organisation, holding, cancellation or deferral of the Conference. The Local Conference Organiser of the Conference does not assume responsibility for benefits lost by the Participants or Sending Entity within this scope. If the legal claims due to the contractual damage and illegal act coincide, the Participant or Sending Entity may request that the damage be repaired only within the bounds indicated above. As for Consumers, general legal provisions effective in Poland apply.

4. The Participants and Sending Entity undertake to observe fire protection and OSH provisions.

5. The Participants and Sending Entity are responsible for their belongings at the Conference venue.

6. The Participants and Sending Entity are obliged to remedy the damage done on general terms.

7.
